Important Information on CME, CBOT Web Sites

Although CBOT and CME products will be trading on CME Globex beginning Monday, January 14, please continue to use the legacy CME and CBOT Web sites for product information through Friday, January 18, 2008. On Saturday, January 19, 2008, the new CME Group site – cmegroup.com – will be up and running and will replace the legacy sites. The new site is intuitive and easy to use, with a number of useful tools that provide information quickly and with minimal clicks to other pages. We believe you will enjoy its user-friendly design and the ability to find information on all CME Group products in one location.
